

Native vertical datums were not harmonized; differences combine elevation-product and datum effects.