

Native vertical datums are not harmonized; differences combine elevation-product, datum and provider-resampling effects.